

From Dr. Mariana Sancho
Director (Payment Approval)
Office of HM Treasury
1 Horse Guards Road
London SW1A 2HQ

The Treasury office has investigated your fund, which has been on transfer process for some period of time. During the second quarter of the general Financial Auditing in the Office of HM Treasury is the British government department responsible for developing and executing the government's public finance policy and economic policy. The Treasury maintains the Online System for Central Accounting and Reporting the office of the auditing and fund recovery unit, has recovered your fund at the tune of GB£2,000,000.00, which was to be paid to you through bank-to-bank transfer to your bank account.

After the auditing, the Office of HM Treasury decides that all recovered and returned fund should be paid to their various beneficiaries within 21 days starting from today. This decision was taking by the Board of the auditors and the External Affairs in the Department of Finance (Office of the Treasury), and at present your fund is in the escrow account of the HSBC Bank.

It has been understood by our investigation team, that this fund was acquired by you as a result of the initial inheritance of fund, which an agent in London was supposed to remit the fund into your bank account in your country some time ago, although you have not received the fund due to the fact that the Office of HM Treasury and some other finance entities requested for some payment, including the Inland Revenue Tax. The good news is that the British Government has finally approved payment of your fund

The Department of Finance has signed the released of your fund, and it has also decided that your fund should be paid out to you without any further delay.
