Selling customers a UPS system is to sell it short.

SPAR operates under four different store formats, which enable the SPAR brand to respond to changing consumer needs in different markets.

The head office is in Helsingborg, Sweden, which - along with Stockholm - also houses the Group's main research and development unit.

With diverse storage environments simplified and consolidated, the IT managers and the doctors enjoy rapid access to information, and the patients ultimately receive faster, more effective care.

The electrical supplies within a UPS interact with those already on-site and are susceptible to the vagaries and idiosyncrasies of that equipment.
